Five Convicts Shot To Death In Escape Try

Negroes Attacked Brunswick, Ga., Prison Warden

EIGHT WOUNDED

Brunswick, Ga., July 12—(AP)—Guards and police officers shot five negro convicts to death and wounded eight others—one fatally—in a mass attempt to escape yesterday from a prison camp near this southeast Georgia coastal city.

The shooting melee began, Warden W. G. Worthing said, when one of the convicts attacked and sought to disarm him. He said the police officers had been called to the camp earlier to aid prison guards in quelling a disturbance.

Major C. A. Williams, head of the state department of prisons, sent two investigators from Atlanta to make an inquiry into the shooting.

Warden Worthing said the officers and guards opened fire with shotguns and rifles when a group of 27 negro convicts raved toward a 12-foot fence enclosing their prison camp.

The gunfire killed 13. Five were killed by the blast. Eight were wounded, two critically, one of whom died late Friday night in a Brunswick hospital. Fourteen convicts, their hands raised high, surrendered.

The warden said none of the men was armed either with firearms or knives, but that several carried short iron bars and sticks.

The convict who "incited" the break for freedom was identified by the warden as Willie Bell, whose assault upon him was a prelude to the blast of gunfire. Bell was wounded in the leg.

Worthing said the trouble began at the camp with the arrival yesterday of new prisoners who refused to work on the Jesup highway and were returned to the prison camp about 4 p. m. When the men refused to leave the trucks in which they had ridden back to camp, the warden said he called for aid from the Glynn county police.

His account continued: Police chief Russell B. Henderson of Glynn county told the prisoner to obey the warden and "cut out that foolishness."

When the negroes left the trucks, they were lined up in the prison enclosure and addressed by Henderson. At the end of the police chief's remarks, the men broke and ran. Some ran to the barracks. Others, however, crawled under the building, which stands about two feet off the ground, and then ran toward the fence on the other side.

This "break," coupled with Bell's attack on the warden, brought about the shooting.

It Wasn't Much, But She Was Glad To Get It Back

There was considerable speculation at the Illinois Central passenger depot a few days ago as to just what a negro woman's lost purse contained. The woman misplaced it while her train stopped here en route from Memphis to Chicago, and she excitedly tried to enlist the aid of everyone at the depot in searching for it.

The story has a happy ending. Local IC employees found the missing purse and peeked inside out of curiosity.

All the woman was taking on a long rail trip was 30 cents in change, her railroad ticket and a ham sandwich.

Twin Sons Die Within 3 Days

Martin—Death struck twice within three days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Oliver, Jr., claiming their twin sons, Barry and Larry, who were born July 2.

Barry died Sunday afternoon and services were conducted at the home of the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ryan, with interment in East Side cemetery.

Larry died Wednesday at St. Joseph Hospital in Memphis. Services again were held at the Ryan home and the infant was buried beside his brother.

School Survey To Be Released

Giffenhausen's Report On Kentucky Available For Sunday Newspapers

Frankfort, Ky., July 12—(AP)—A digest of recommendations by Giffenhausen and Associates of Chicago on the Kentucky Department of Education is to be made available for publication in Sunday newspapers.

This was disclosed after Gov. Simeon Willis yesterday turned over to news men here 11 to 15 volumes of the $19,200 survey of Kentucky education prepared by the research firm. The 12th report, on the Harlan county school district, will be released as soon as it is received, the governor said.

The survey began in June, 1946. The volumes, totaling more than 1,200 pages, contain studies of the education department, University of Kentucky, four state teachers colleges, Henderson county and independent school districts, the Harlan and Lynch independent district and a general statement on higher education.

Digests of other volumes are to be dispatched as rapidly as possible to morning and afternoon newspapers.

Public Is Invited To Demonstration Of Resuscitator

The public is invited to see a demonstration of the use of the Fulton Lions Club's resuscitator at Sunny Dip pool Monday morning, July 14, at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Russ Anderson, who is teaching the Red Cross water safety and life saving courses at the pool, will be in charge of the demonstration. The equipment will be used on a volunteer "drowning victim."

The resuscitator, purchased by the Lions Club, is kept at the Fulton fire station. Fortunately, there has never been any occasion to use it, according to Lion president W. L. Holland.

Congressional Nines To Battle For Boys' Benefit

Washington, July 12—(AP)—Congress squares off today in a game of alleged baseball, and an authoritative source, who knows a liniment salesman well, sums it up this way:

1. The Republicans probably have the batting power. Furthermore, they have practiced five or six times.

2. The Democrats probably have the pitching edge in 32-year-old Rep. William McDonald Wheeler, the onetime pride of the Alma, Ga., Athletic Club.

Proceeds from the game—at Griffith Stadium, home of the Washington Senators—will go to the local Police Boys' Club.

Mayfield Negro Slugs Jeweler

Mayfield, Ky., July 12—(AP)—I. H. Foster, local jeweler, reported to police last night he was hit on the head by a negro who came into his store and asked to see a watch.

Foster said that when he bent over to select a watch from one of his cases, the negro attacked him. Foster, who received a severe scalp wound, recovered sufficiently, however, to chase the man from the store, but was not able to catch him.

Police today said they had picked up a suspect early this morning for questioning.

Kent Williams To Sing Over WFPS Sunday Night

Joe Williams, popular tenor who once made his home here, and known professionally as Kent Williams, who is to star this summer in several musical productions sponsored by the Memphis Open Air Theatre, will be featured tomorrow night, Sunday, July 13, over radio station WFPS, Memphis from 7 to 7:30 o'clock.

Garrett Asks Governor To Seek Aviation Funds

Ashland, Ky., July 12—(AP)—Charles Garrett, Ashland, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor, says he is urging Gov. Simeon Willis to include an aeronautical appropriation in any call for a special legislative session.

HE COULD BE PRESIDENT—Speaker of the House Joseph W. Martin, Jr., (R-Mass.) (center) who could be president, should anything happen to President Truman after signing of presidential succession bill passed by House July 10, is congratulated by Rep. Charles A. Halleck (R-Ind.) (left) and Rep. Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) after the House vote. Bill makes speaker next in line of presidential succession to the vice president.

GOP Wants Tax Vote Today; Threatens Continuous Session

Washington, July 12—(AP)—The Senate knocked down today a proposal to delay income tax cutting legislation at least until 1949 and then drove toward final action, possibly late today.

It rejected 60 to 32 an amendment by Senator Morse (R-Ore.) designed to put off any reduction in taxes until there is "an actual or imminent decline of substantial proportions in the level of employment and production."

The amendment was the first of a dozen or so which sponsors intended to try to attach to the tax reduction bill before it goes to the White House to be vetoed for a second time.

The GOP leadership threatened to keep today's Senate session going on into the night if necessary to obtain passage of the tax cut bill.

With approval of the measure conceded, main interest centered on the size of the majority as a yardstick to show whether President Truman's forthcoming second veto can be overridden.

The no-quarter maneuvering by both sides to line up their forces for that test went on grimly behind the scenes.

Determined to send the bill to the White House quickly, assistant majority leader Wherry (R-Nebr.) said he planned a rare Saturday night session unless the Senate accepted during the day the bill already re-passed by the House to slash income taxes 30 to 10.5 percent beginning Jan. 1.

Senator Barkley (KY), the Democratic leader, asked Wherry during debate late yesterday whether he proposed a Sunday session.

"We'll cross the river when we come to it," the Nebraskan snapped.

A two-thirds majority of both houses is required to make the bill law over Mr. Truman's objections. Such a ratio appears likely in the House, where the bill passed 302 to 112. The division of sentiment in the Senate, however, admittedly is much closer.

Neivel To Speak At South Fulton Baptist Services

The Rev. W. C. Neivel, Gates, Tenn., will be the speaker tonight in the regular Saturday evening evangelistic service at the South Fulton Baptist church, 745 p. m.

Winchester Girl Is Amnesia Victim

Winchester, Ky., July 12—(AP)—Patrolman E. B. Osborne said Pleas Smith, father of an apparent amnesia victim who identified herself at Huntington, W. Va., would go to Huntington today for the girl.

The girl had wandered into a dairy bar in Huntington Thursday night, officers said.

The girl, 15, related she had left her home Wednesday night and went with friends to a carnival at Mt. Sterling.

The girl was quoted as saying she became separated from her friends and recalled nothing of her activities after leaving the carnival.

State Sen. Charles Waggoner Raps $100,000 Gambling Probe; John Fred Williams Wants Special Session—Opinions Differ

Mayfield—State Senator Charles C. Waggoner, representing the First Kentucky Senate district, told the Mayfield Messenger yesterday that he had not had time to study the Willis statement about appropriations if a special session of the legislature is called this summer. He said, however, that a glance at the $100,000 item to finance investigation of gambling in the state was enough to convince him that he was against this appropriation.

Love Too Late To Foil Prison

California Woman Offers To Take Wife-Slayer, But Parole Board Says "No"

Nashville, Tenn., July 12—(AP)—Love that came too late to a middle-aged California woman and an imprisoned Memphis wife-slayer is still too early for the Tennessee state pardon and parole board.

Parole board secretary R. D. Greenlaw said yesterday that the 47-year-old woman had asked that her childhood sweetheart be paroled to her.

"I have known him since he was 16 and I was 13," Greenlaw quoted the woman as having written. "I would no doubt have married him but another man spoke faster."

She married the fast-talking suitor and is now a widow. Her childhood sweetheart also married, and in 1939 he was sentenced to 25 years in the penitentiary for killing his wife.

Greenlaw said the prisoner's case was reviewed about a year ago and that he would not be eligible for release until Nov. 17, 1952. The parole secretary refused to disclose the name of either person, but said the man is now nearly 50 years old.

The woman wrote that she had $10,000 from a GI insurance policy and $18,000 from other sources. Greenlaw said, as well as two homes free of debt and an income from rental of her property.

"I would take care of him and be a good companion to him if he were paroled to me," she said.

Tucker Brothers Buy City Buses; Take Over Sunday

Hobart and Earl Tucker, brothers, announce that they have purchased the Fulton city buses and will begin their operation of the vehicles Sunday, July 13.

The original owner of the bus company was Harry Wayne Shupe, who secured a city franchise for bus operation in December 1946.

The new owners said the schedules would remain the same for the present. Both formerly were employed by Shupe as drivers.

You Name It—It's Probably On Display In Invention Show

Hollywood, July 12—(AP)—Pianos you can play in bed, giant soap bubbles for staging movie spectacle, and a zipper bra are packing in the curious at the world inventors exposition.

Biggest crowds gather around the zipper bra booth, where inventor-showgirl Evelyn West personally models her brassiere between matinee and evening shows.

Evelyn says she's all set to market her invention which she describes as very handy when "you're in a hurry like we showgirls sometimes are in changing costumes."

The bedtime pianos were developed during the war for wounded veterans. Now they have been commercialized for children and invalids.

Larry Crosby, Bing's brother and head of the Crosby Research Foundation, exhibited a better mousetrap but complained that the world was not beating a path to his door. "I've had the thing for years," said Larry.

Inventive genius ran the gamut, from legless tables to a traffic light that shows how long you have to wait before the signal changes but the most popular exhibits were of girls—and more girls—all borrowed from movie studios as models for the occasion.

A man named Johnny Miller of Long Beach was doing a rushing business at his "Radio snackbar" where he sold hotdogs—electronically cooked—for 25 cents a bark.

Another Crosby foundation invention included: (1) a new vacuum coffee maker which makes good coffee but requires an engineer to understand it; (2) hydraulically operated windows with leaves of glass rising and lowering on venetian-blind principle; (3) a new pump for washing machines guaranteed not to clog with turn-of-butts, soap suds or diaper pins.

Frankfort—State engineers reported the Manchester bridge over Goose Creek in Clay county, which was washed out by recent flash floods, has been replaced. The new span will be opened to traffic tonight.

Frankfort—Robert K. Cullen, chief editor of the Kentucky Statutes Revision Commission, said he will aid in helping Ohio and Missouri revise their state laws.

Louisville—Federal Judge Mac Swinford entered a final order of dismissal of suits for liability against about 200 stockholders of Bancokentucky, the defendants having satisfied claims against them. The order is one of the last in the 17-year-old Banco litigation.

Louisville—The 27th annual state convention of the American Legion Auxiliary opens here July 20 and continues through July 23.

Lexington—The Community Chest here will finance no relief work after Jan. 1 that should be the responsibility of Fayette county, according to secretary Lester Robb of the chest.

The Fulton fire department was called at 5:55 p. m. Friday to put out a fire at Grady Varden's garage, Pearl street. Damage was slight.

Bowling Green's Mayor Spencer, 62, Dies Early Today

Bowling Green, Ky., July 12—(AP)—Delbert David Spencer, 62, widely known businessman and mayor of Bowling Green, died early this morning of a heart attack while a guest of friends in the Riverside community.

Formerly a member of the city council for four years, Spencer began a two-year term as mayor after his election in November 1945. Early in his business life he operated a steamboat here and from 1907 to 1917 he operated a ferry at Woodbury.

Later, after a period of farming he had a grocery, bakery and furniture business. He resigned the branch managership of an oil company to run for mayor.

Iwo Jima Trip Requires 2 Tons Of Luggage For 2

Lexington, Ky., July 12—(AP)—Two tons of luggage may seem a lot for a woman and her four-month-old child.

But not when they're heading for Iwo Jima for a two-year stay. "That's why I'm taking so much extra clothing and all," explained Mrs. Hendricks Dunlap before she and her baby headed for the tiny Pacific isle.

There, they'll join the husband and father, an Army lieutenant.

An Absurd Proposal

Governor Willis has made an extraordinary proposition to the members of the General Assembly. It is that they abdicate the legislative function wholly to him. The State Constitution gives the Governor the right to stipulate upon what subjects a special session of the legislature may act. But nothing in the Constitution or in the entire theory of representative government gives him the right to direct exactly how the legislature must act on those subjects. And that is what the Governor wants to do. He would dot every i and cross every t in every bill. He would even prescribe how long the session could sit. Mayors, Governors and Presidents are in trouble when their legislative branches are controlled by their political opposition. Governor Willis is entitled to sympathy in that situation. But never in all the history of our politics was a more remarkable device contrived to meet the difficulty than that which the Governor has submitted. And it is especially remarkable in that it comes from a distinguished member of a party which moaned for years about the "rubber-stamp Congress" of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

But, even supposing the Governor's proposal could be justified in principle, it has a fatal defect in practical application. The largest appropriation recommended—or, if he should have his way, dictated—by Governor Willis is for schools. The latest information on the needs of the schools is available in a report by a firm of Chicago experts on public administration, employed at a cost of $19,200 to the taxpayers. But the legislators have not seen this report, except one part of limited scope. And if the Governor has seen it, he has not made it public. He has simply presented a figure and demanded that the legislators ratify it in the dark. How could any of them do so and satisfy his conscience or comply with his oath?

Kentucky's needs are great and urgent. The Courier-Journal would not like to see any fine-spun theory of government put in the way of any proposal for meeting them. But here we encounter fundamental facts of government that cannot be brushed aside. The Willis proposal is the proposal of a Governor who either has failed to consider these facts or does not really want a special session and has made a proposition which he knew in advance would be rejected. In any case, that is what probably will and certainly ought to happen to it.—Courier-Journal.

Tunget—A Confused Man

The warped and confused thinking of the habitual criminal was never more apparent than in the final statement of Earl Tunget, Louisville "bad boy" whose offenses against society included armed robbery, grand larceny, automobile theft and two murders. Just before he nonchalantly seated himself in the death chair at Eddyville penitentiary, he pictured himself as an underdog who never had a chance as long as he "played the game by the state's rules." He bitterly charged that his lawyer had sold him out to the state. (Attorney Robert Zollinger spent the night before Tunget's death in the governor's mansion pleading for a stay of execution.) He told of threats on his life made by prison officials, and insisted that he was guilty only of having the instinct of self-preservation—carefully avoiding any statement about how he happened to have the gun with which he shot a deputy warden within the penitentiary.

Tunget obviously enjoyed every phrase, every word of his statement in the stifling death house at Eddyville prison. He reveled in the close attention given him by the working newspaper people, who were merely covering the execution as part of their jobs. He no doubt believed that his "expose" of conditions within the penitentiary would result in prosecution of Warden Tuggle and his aides for malfeasance. That would be sweet revenge for the hardened killer with the face of a cherub.

Tunget faced his death with outward stoic calm, and no doubt was naive enough to think everyone in the death house convinced that he was a martyr who had been grievously wronged by the state and society in general.

Europe Divided

By Dewitt MacKenzie, AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Well, the division of Europe into eastern and western blocs finally has been formalized—and by Moscow.

Russia knew whereof she spoke when she warned that the American program for European rehabilitation would result in the formation of two blocs. She knew it because she herself was prepared to make the division arbitrarily.

Only one of the small nations within the Soviet Union sphere of influence dared accept the Anglo-French invitation to attend the rehabilitation conference in Paris. That was Czechoslovakia—Slavic in origin but western in its ideas and ideals. Moscow put on the screws, and the Prague government, with its Communist premier, gave in.

One wonders, by the way, what reaction we may get ultimately from the very democratic President Eduard Benes, one of the founders of the republic, and from foreign minister Jan Masaryk, father of his country and its first chief executive. The Czech spirit isn't adapted to servitude. Smoldering fires burn long.

Indications are that Russia is preparing to inaugurate a counter economic program for her eastern bloc. Thus, as things now stand, instead of a coordinated effort in the interests of European rehabilitation there will be two competing areas. Each of them will have resources which the other needs and can't get.

One of the most extraordinary aspects of this situation is displayed in an astonishing statement by a Polish government spokesman in Warsaw. Commenting on Poland's rejection of the invitation to attend the Paris parley he told a news conference that his country still looked principally to the United States to supply the necessities for rebuilding the war-torn nation.

Undoubtedly there are other Soviet satellites which are hoping that America will aid them, despite their refusal to participate in the Marshall plan. Big hearted Uncle Sam! Should the United States subscribe to such a program it would put her in the position of supplying the Soviet and its satellites with the sinews to combat the policies of the western democracies.

So far as concerns any Muscovite plan to provide the wherewithal for economic rehabilitation of the eastern bloc, it is obvious that the Soviet Union isn't in position to supply anything like all the needs. As the present crisis has boiled up the government announced (presumably for the benefit of its satellites) that it has had wide successes in its own domestic recovery program. A large increase in crop acreage is reported, and industrial production is said to be up 15 percent, but that doesn't suffice for Russia's own requirements.

Of course that situation may change with time. If Moscow can hold its satellites in line for a few years on short rations, perhaps the Soviet can engineer the economic rehabilitation of its bloc, though that would be a tall order. Hitler achieved it by creating an economic structure in which the efforts of the small countries complemented those of Germany. The Fatherland produced the manufactured goods which were exchanged for agricultural commodities needed by the Reich.

There seems no reason to doubt that Russia can duplicate this feat by heavy industrialization, providing she can hold her bloc together meantime. It's a trick that can't be turned overnight, however.

40-Acre Pasture

Supports 80 Cows

Instead of requiring two to four acres of pasture per cow, as it did 10 years ago, Forest Borders of Warren county has developed 40 acres of pasture which supported 80 head of Holstein cows for two months, some of the cows giving 90 pounds of weighted milk daily during that time. Borders reported to Farm Agent Ray C. Hopper that his pasture included ladino clover, sweet clover, alsike, timothy or redtop, orchard grass and bluegrass.

August B. Russo of New Orleans, La., visited in Fulton yesterday. He is assistant general chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. O'Connor and daughter, Patricia, returned to Freeport, Ill., this morning after visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lynch on Carr street.

Will Taylor Lee will return tomorrow to Bay Springs, Miss., where he is employed with a construction company there.

Miss Nancy Dougherty of San Antonio, Texas, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hunter Whitesell.

Mrs. Zilpha Moss has returned home after a two weeks visit with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Moss of Memphis. They accompanied her home and visited with Mrs. Irene Meadows, who is Mr. Moss's sister, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith Atkins and son, Jerry, and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Little are spending this weekend in Memphis.

Dairy Production

Up In Carroll Co.

Topping monthly production records since the beginning of the Dairy Herd Improvement Association program was adopted in Carroll county, nine members reported that 160 cows produced an average of 802 pounds of milk and 33.9 pounds of butterfat in one month. Farm Agent Clyde Watts says improved pastures and feeding combined with better bred cows to give increased production.

Seventy-five acres of Ky. 31 fescue will be harvested for seed in Clark county, some of which will yield 300 pounds to the acre.

Alfalfa-Fed Hogs

Bring Top Dollar

Grading 17 head of feeder hogs on four acres of alfalfa and feeding them corn with no supplement proved to be a good plan for Chittenden Bros. of Livingston county. Upon marketing their hogs, said Farm Agent Robert L. Rudolph, complete cost records showed they had received almost $4 per bushel for their corn.

Corporations Reminded

Of Deadline For Filing

Frankfort, Ky.—H. T. (Hub) Perdev, clerk in the secretary of state's office, advised today that all corporations are required by law to file their annual reports in his office not later than July 1.

Corporations which failed to file reports should do so immediately "in order that they may remain in good standing," he said.

Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
New York, July 12—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals have come east to hammer away at the three clubs that are ahead of them in the National League race and manager Eddie Dyer, for one, isn't surprised that they're within shooting distance of the top after the miserable start they got this spring. "On our first eastern trip," says Eddie, "Stan Musial was sick with appendicitis; Terry Moore was out of the lineup and so was Erv Dusak. With fellows like that out, we couldn't play good baseball. Now they're all in there. It isn't so much that new players we've got since then helping us as the old ones playing their game." The Cardinals manager checked himself to think things over a bit as he saw Ducky Medwick striding out to take hitting practice. "That fellow has been a lot of help," he admitted. "He gives me another right-hand hitter to put in there against lefties—and he's a great competitor."

Versailles High Coach Going To Indianapolis
Versailles, Ky., July 12—(AP)—Leo Shively is to become head track coach and football line mentor at Decatur Central high school in Indianapolis Aug. 20. Supt. Shively, a brother of Bernie Shively, athletic director at the University of Kentucky, came here in 1939 from Pineville, Ky.

Don Black, Cleveland Indians pitcher, signifies his accomplishment with his hands in the dressing room at Cleveland after pitching a no-hit, no-run game against his former teammates, the Philadelphia Athletics. It was the first no-hit game of the season in the American League. Black walked six men as the Indians won, 3 to 0.

New York State Wouldn't Accept Rocky As Champ

New York, July 12—(AP)—The picture of New York "seceding" from the union—as far as the world middleweight championship is concerned—and declaring the crown vacant popped up today as a possibility if rock-a-bye Rocky Graziano takes Tony Zale's title away in Chicago next Wednesday.

The New York state athletic commission definitely will not give back to the belt from New York's lower East Side the license that was taken away from him last January because he failed to report a bribe offer of $100,000 that he insisted he thought was "a gag."

Commission chairman Eddie Egan made Graziano's standing plain today in talking about the possibilities from Wednesday's wallop party. Then, getting around to what would happen if Graziano should win the middleweight bauble, Egan said the commission hasn't gone in to this little matter yet, but that it was possible the fistic fathers would just say there isn't any champ at all. The fathers, of course, will find it especially difficult to convince Gus Fan and his missus about that, if Rocky's number is hung up at the end of the Chicago taffy-pull.

Ewell Knocks On Big League Records Door

13-Win Streak Near N. L. High

By The Associated Press

Ewell Blackwell of Cincinnati is taking dead aim on a place among the National League's modern day pitching greats with a 13-game win streak that has been surpassed by only four hurlers in the older circuit since 1900.

The all-time record is 19 in a row held jointly by Rube Marquand in 1912 and Time-Keefe in 1888, both of the New York Nationals. Carl Hubbell sewed together a string of 16 in 1936 for the New York Giants.

Even a 30-game winning season is not beyond the reach of Blackwell, whose Cincinnati Reds have not yet played half of their 154 games. The last National to hit the 30 mark was Dizzy Dean of the St. Louis Gas House Gang in 1934.

"Blacky" was not up to his usual form in last night's 10-6 decision over Boston as he was nicked for 11 hits. However it was his ninth straight complete game since June 1 when he was lifted for a pinch hitter at the Polo Grounds. He complained of a sore elbow that day in June but, after four days rest, he came back better than ever.

Brooklyn enjoyed Blackwell's success at long range, having shut out Chicago, 5-0, before the Boston returns were in. The Braves' loss and Dodger victory topped their National League lead to a cozy three full games. Vic Lombardi, hurling his first complete game of the year, allowed four hits but he was wild.

The St. Louis Cardinals' march through the east was halted by the New York Giants who were beaten 4-3 on homers by Del Rice and Ron Northey in the first game of a doubleheader. The Giants overcame a five-run Cardinal first inning with eight in their half and went on to subdue the Red Birds 17-9 in a game mercifully halted by darkness in the eighth. Dave Koslo, who started the first, won the second on relief and Al Brazie, who started the opener for the Birds, took the closing loss.

Billy Cox's four hits highlighted the Pittsburgh Pirates' 7-2 night game romp over the Phillies for Ernie Bonham's seventh success. Ben Chapman had a slight mixup in his batting order and had to start Schoolboy Rowe against one man when he wanted to use Charley Schanz.

The New York Yankees stretched their win streak to 10, the longest in the majors this season, by subduing St. Louis, 3-1.

As Detroit and Boston split two, the Yanks' lead now measures nine games over both the Tigers and Red Sox. Tex Hughson tamed Detroit in the opener, 4-3, decisioning Dizzy Trout, but Stubby Overmire squared matters with a four-hit shutout 3-0, to hand Danny Galehouse his first Boston setback.

The Philadelphia Athletics bounced back from their no-hit, no-run loss to Cleveland's Don Black and clubbed out a 4-2 margin over the tribe for Phil Marchiondi's ninth victory.

Washington climbed into sixth place over Chicago by topping the White Sox, 4-3, in a Comiskey Park night game.

301 Tee Off In Cobb Tourney

11th Annual Field Has 280 Amateurs, 21 Pros

Paducah, Ky., July 12—(AP)—Three hundred and one players set out in quest of golf glory in the 11th annual Irvin Cobb championships here today.

The field included 280 seeking the amateur crown and 21 after the professional championship. There were representatives of 52 cities and 13 states.

The large field made it necessary for a three-day tournament to be held, beginning at 6 a. m. (CST) the field will be cut to about 200 for the final play Sunday.

The 36-hole medal play tournament included 18 holes today and 18 tomorrow.

Gene Dahlbender, Jr., Atlanta, Ga., entered from Clarksville, Tenn., was installed the popular favorite to win the amateur title. He was medalist twice in the Southern Amateur, the last time at Birmingham, Ala., in 1946.

Ben Owen of Louisville, formerly of Lexington, was scheduled to tee off at noon. He also was a ranking favorite. Other amateurs receiving good backing for the title included Fred Smith, Nashville, Tenn.; Jimmy Wittenberg, Memphis, Tenn., and Johnny Primrose, Owensboro.

Mississippi has approximately 15,860,000 acres in forest areas, as France.

Silage Clippings Make Good Feed

Henry Marraman, dairyman of Bullitt county, is following his usual practice of mowing his pastures and filling his silo with clippings, says Farm Agent F. E. Rothwell. Using ground alfalfa hay mixed with dry ground corn for a preservative, he hopes to have 100 tons of grass silage.

Pepsin Removes Many Bad Stains, UK Specialist Says

When Junior spills ice cream down the front of his best suit, use pepsin to remove the spot, is the advice of Miss Dorothy Threlkeld, specialist in clothing at the UK College of Agriculture and Home Economics. Other stains, such as eggs, milk, meat juice, blood, perspiration, glue, gelatine and certain medicines like argyrol, also react to this new treatment.

What We Believe

Charles L. Houser
There was a time when God forbade the eating of certain meats. (See Leviticus 11th chapter.) If the law of Moses were still in force, and if it were now binding upon all, even as it was upon the Israelites before the execution of Christ's will, then it would be sinful now to eat pork or catfish. Acts 15:29 describes the restrictions regarding "meats," as bound by the gospel of Christ, "That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled. . . . Hence, blood puddings" are forbidden, as are also meats sacrificed to idols and that meat which is not bled.

Paul foretold that the time would come when certain ones would forbid marriage and command to abstain from meats, "which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth." But Paul also explained that these practices would not begin until the "latter times," and that they would be started by some who departed "from the faith." (See 1 Timothy 4:1-4.)

Hence, while it is poor judgment to eat anything that injures one physically, the scriptures do not forbid your eating any meat, at ANY TIME, except that which is sacrificed to idols and that which is not properly bled.

The humble TODAY that makes TOMORROW GREAT...

The humble TODAY that makes TOMORROW GREAT...

You could see this scene in a hundred thousand churches next Sunday—but would you grasp its mighty import?

If you saw a lump of iron ore would you envision bridges of steel spanning America's rivers... if you saw a gushing oil well would you envision a million cars speeding along our highways... if you saw a bag of seed would you envision golden acres awaiting the harvest?

It is the humble today that makes tomorrow great. For few gifts have come to us ready-made. God has made every blessing a challenge... every resource a responsibility.

Our children are our greatest challenge—our paramount responsibility. For God's—and the world's—tomorrow will spring from their humble today. The Church understands that!

Your child—every child—needs the Church!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material Bible daily.
